

ANA BARSEGIAN

ATTORNEY, LAW OFFICE OF ANA BARSEGIAN

I'm a practicing family law attorney with an established local practice in Glendale. My practice includes divorce, domestic partnerships, separation, child custody, support, prenuptial agreements, and other related legal matters. When clients walk into my office they immediately notice the wall quote that reads "All because two people fell in love..." We can trace everything, including hiring a lawyer, back to romance! For over a decade, I've handled hundreds of family law cases involving simple and complex issues. My clients include entertainment executives, small business entrepreneurs, physicians, schoolteachers, and city employees. Like most lawyers, I love going to court, but at the end of the day it's Family Law! Conflicts need resolution, and my approach is tailored to my clients' needs. I successfully settle many of my cases because I understand the importance of operating from a position of strength.
